

BYELAWS MADE UNDER SECTION 61 OF THE FOOD AND DRUGS ACT 1955 BY THE CORBY DISTRICT COUNCIL WITH RESPECT TO THE MARKET BELONGING TO THEM AT CORBY.

INTERPRETATION OF TERMS

1. Throughout these byelaws

"the Council" means the Corby District Council;

"goods" includes provisions, commodities and articles brought into the market place for the purpose of sale;

"market" means the market maintained by the Council known as Corby market;

"market place" means the place in Corby where the market is held;

"Market Superintendent" means the person appointed by the Council to exercise general management, supervision and control of the market, or his duly authorised representative;

"sell" and "sale" include exposing and exposure for sale;

"stall" includes any building, standing, bench, table, place, or stage used or intended to be used for the sale of goods.

2. Where the Council:-

(a) appropriate any part of the market place for the sale of goods, or any class of goods, or ^{for sales} the sale by auction, and

(b) display in a conspicuous place a public notice to that effect, no person shall sell any goods, or hold any sales by auction, except in accordance with the terms of that appropriation.

3. No person, other than an officer or servant of the Council acting in the proper execution of his duty, shall post or display any bill, placard, or poster other than a description of goods, in or on any part of the market place:

Provided that this byelaw shall not apply to any bill, placard or poster being posted or displayed pursuant to regulation 13(1) of the Food Hygiene (Markets Stalls, and Delivery Vehicles) Regulations 1966 as amended by the Food Hygiene (Market Stalls and Delivery Vehicles) (Amendment) Regulations 1966.

4. Unless the written consent of the ^{market superintendent} Council be first obtained no person in the market place shall, except by way of sale, distribute or attempt to distribute to the public in the market place any leaflets, hand bills, cards, pamphlets, booklets or other literature.

5. No person shall occupy or take possession of any stall or deposit or cause to be deposited any goods, equipment or utensils on any stall unless and until such stall has been duly let or otherwise allocated by the market superintendent for the use of such person.
6. No person shall erect or fix or attempt to erect or fix any stall in the market place without the previous written consent of the Council.
7. No person shall, to the danger of any person, keep, store, or sell any gunpowder, fire works or other explosive substance or any naphtha, bottled gas, petroleum or paraffin oil or other flammable substance in the market place.
8. No person shall bring any goods into the market place more than one hour before the market opens or allow them to remain there more than half an hour after the market closes.
9. Every tenant or occupier of a stall in the market place shall, not later than half an hour after the time fixed for the closing of the market, extinguish every light in connection with the stall.
10. No person in charge of a vehicle shall allow it to be halted in any avenue, passage, or roadway in the market place, or in the immediate approaches thereto, for longer than is necessary for the loading or unloading of goods.
11. No person in charge of a vehicle shall allow it to enter or remain in any avenue, passage or roadway in the market place between 10.00 a.m. and the close of the market.
12. No person shall bring into the market place or the immediate approaches thereto, or allow to stand therein, any vehicle, goods or receptacle for goods, or animals in such manner as to cause obstruction:

Provided that this shall not apply to any vehicle being used for fire brigades, ambulance, police or refuse disposal purposes in pursuance of statutory powers or duties.

13. Every tenant or occupier of a stall shall:-
 - (a) Cause the stall to be properly cleansed before and after market hours and as often as may be necessary during those hours;
 - (b) cause all refuse from the stall and all refuse arising from the loading or unloading of goods required in connection with the stall, to be placed in receptacle provided or approved by the Council for the purpose of his exclusive use;
 - (c) as often as is necessary cause the contents of such receptacle to be moved, without creating a nuisance or obstruction, to such place of deposit within the market place as shall be appropriated therefor by the Council and indicated by a public notice to that effect displayed in a conspicuous place.

14. No person shall bring into or allow to remain in the market place any dog or animal belonging to him or in his charge unless it is attached to a lead and kept at all times under his control or is otherwise kept sufficiently secured and under his control.

15. No stallholder shall keep any dog or animal at his stall unless it is intended for sale:

Provided that nothing in this byelaw shall prevent a blind person from bringing into the market place and keeping with him any guide dog belonging to him or in his charge.

16. No person driving or riding any vehicle in the market place or in the immediate approaches thereto shall proceed at a greater speed than 5 miles per hour.

17. No person shall wilfully obstruct, disturb or annoy any person in the proper use of the market place.

18. No person shall wilfully throw or drop any orange peel, fruit, vegetable substance, or other market litter in or upon any avenue or passage in the market place to the damage or danger of any person:

Provided that this byelaw shall not apply in respect of any place in the open air to which the Litter Act 1958 or any amendment thereof applies.

19. No tenant or occupier of a stall shall display, stack, or hang any goods on or from such stall at a height exceeding 12 ft.

20. No tenant or occupier of a stall shall cause or permit any goods or receptacle for goods to be placed on any stall so as to project beyond the limits of such stall.

21. No person shall, by the ringing of bells or the use of any other musical instrument, create a nuisance or annoyance or cause hinderance to the normal business of the market.

22. Every person who shall offend against any of these byelaws shall on summary conviction be liable for every offence to a fine not exceeding the sum of fifty pounds (£50).

23. The byelaws with respect to the market which were made by the former Urban District Council of Corby ~~and~~ on the twenty fifth day of January One thousand nine hundred and fifty four and confirmed by the Secretary of State on the twenty third day of March One thousand nine hundred and fifty four are hereby repealed.
