ONLINE DISABILITY AWARENESS & CHILD SEXUAL EXPLOITATION TRAINING
INTRODUCTION

From 1st January 2019 Corby Borough Council has mandated that all hackney carriage and private hire vehicle drivers must undergo training in Disability Awareness and also training that will allow drivers to spot the signs Child Sexual Exploitation.

The foremost duty of the Council is to ensure the safety of the public using taxis and private hire vehicles. This training will equip drivers to become much more confident in providing an excellent level of service for disabled passengers. It will also provide drivers with the ability to spot the indicators of child exploitation and the confidence to report any concerns they may have.

Both existing drivers and new applicants will be required to undertake the training. Licenses will not be renewed or issued until you can demonstrate you have completed the training and passed the relevant tests.

HOW TO COMPLETE THE TRAINING

The training provider is Equo Training. Follow this link to get to their log on page:

Once you arrive at the welcome page you will need to click the BUY NOW button. Payment for the course (£42) is made by Debit or Credit Card.

After paying you will be redirected to the Equo training course page where you will be asked to fill in a short on-line form.
It is very important you fill in this box with ‘Corby Borough Council’.

It is also important that you type your name as it appears on your badge or on your application form. This ensures that CBC are informed when you pass the tests, which will speed up the issue of your licence.

Good luck!
