Exhibitions Diary 2019/2020

Corby and The Newton Rebels
Starts Saturday 21st September 2019  Ends Saturday 29th February 2020
Newton is a small village near Kettering in which peasants from Corby took part in one of the last peasant led revolts in conflict with the gentry. Local peasants risked everything including the threat of hanging to make a stand against the local gentry who were taking ancient land rights from them. The exhibition tells their story and their struggle to be heard.

Corby Old Village and the families that shaped it
Starts Saturday 7th March 2020 Ends Saturday 30th May 2020
Cor y is an ancient village mentioned in the Domesday book, one of its most surprising features in its long history is the continued occupancy of long established families that can trace their history and links to Corby in some cases over 600 years. Names such as Rowlett, Lattimer, Ironmonger, Dixon, still residing in the village, this is more remarkable in a time when many villages are seeing local names disappear from their census lists. The exhibition explores these fascinating old Corby families.
