Harborough District Council notes the ambitions for the plan to deliver an additional level of housing growth “above the objective assessment of need identified as required for Corby”.

As para 1.7 in the Statement of Compliance with the Duty to Cooperate (published along side this consultation states) “the authorities within North Northamptonshire agreed housing and job growth targets to meet the objectively assessed needs of the wider market area, not just Corby’s”.

Harborough District council welcomes the clarity provided in the plan that Corby is able to meet all of its housing needs within its area, and is making provision for additional growth to meet needs of the wider sub-area. As such, there is no unmet need from Corby or North Northamptonshire that would be need to be considered in relation to Harborough’s Local Plan and housing need requirements.

We support the ambitions for growth and Sustainable Urban Extensions delivered in tandem with the necessary infrastructure.
