Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007

Commencement of Review – Invitation for Submissions

Corby Borough Council has commenced a Community Governance Review on the unparished area of the Borough with a view to creating a town council for Corby.

The initial stage of the review process is now being conducted and residents and interested organisations are invited to submit their views on the above issue.

Terms of Reference setting out how the Council proposes to undertake the review are available on the Council's website www.corby.gov.uk Copies can also be obtained from the Democratic Services team via the contact details below or by visiting The Cube HelpDesk, The Cube, George Street, Corby.

How to contact us

Representations will be accepted in writing or by email. Residents should ensure they include their name and home postal address. They should be addressed to –

Democratic Services – Community Governance Review
Corby Borough Council
The Cube, George Street,
Corby. Northamptonshire NN17 1QG

Alternatively you can email your submission through to committee.services@corby.gov.uk

The deadline for submissions for this initial consultation is 30th April 2019.

All submissions will be considered whilst the draft proposals are formed. There will then follow a further consultation period on the draft proposals. The Full Council of Corby Borough Council will make the final decision later this year on the outcome of the Review and if a town council for Corby is to be created.
